Walther League Zone Organized by Youths

A new youth group zone of the Lutheran Churches - Missouri Synod was organized at a meeting held at the Ascension Lutheran Church recently. To be known as the Bay Shores Zone Walther League, the new organization represents eight congregation youth groups in the new zone of the International Walther League. Lutheran Churches represented in the new zone include Ascension, Torrance; Mt. Olive, Palos Verdes; Immanuel, Redondo Beach; St. John's, El Segundo; Our Savior, Westchester; and Good Shepherd and Concordia, Inglewood. New officers elected at the organizational meeting include Steve Dwyer, Good Shepherd, president; Kenneth Zimmet, Ascension, vice president; Virginia Ulkus, Ascension, secretary; Vicky Naumann, First, treasurer. The officers were installed by the Rev. Lloyd Warneke, pastor of Ascension. A dinner was served by ladies of Ascension under the direction of Mrs. John Martin and Shirley Rawlins, Bonnie Flynn and William Feierabend were in charge of entertainment for the meeting.

Traditional Story Slated At Wayfarer

Dorothy Carter Haven will present her 13th annual monodrama, "Mary, Mother of Jesus," at the Wayfarers' Chapel Sunday, Dec. 1, at 4 and 7:30 p.m. and Sunday, Dec. 8, at 4 and 7:30 p.m. Miss Haven, nationally known as the "one woman theater," will dramatize the life of Jesus' mother in five scenes extending from the family circle in Nazareth to the temple in Jerusalem. The drama was drawn from historical records and scriptures. Reserved tickets, without charge, may be obtained by writing to the Wayfarers' Chapel, Portuguese Bend. Seating capacity is limited.

United Way Has Report Meet Today

Reports on United Way campaign's Harbor Area division will be presented at a luncheon meeting today at the Ports O' Call in San Pedro. Volunteer chairman for the district, Stanley Williamson, will be on hand for the reports as will his vice chairman, Nelson Rucker. Other chairmen scheduled to hear the reports include Edward D'Anna, commerce and industry; Mrs. Nena Schneider, residential; and Mrs. Gerald Fagan, residential vice chairman. City chairmen who will make the reports on the Harbor Area's $108,972 quota will include Arthur Reeves, Torrance; Walter Scheppman, Harbor City-Lomita; and chairmen from Gardena, Wilmington, Rolling Hills, and Palos Verdes Estates.

Lecture on Moon Assault Slated Today

Dr. Edward van Driest, a space scientist working on Project Apollo, will speak this evening at the Long Beach State College Little Theater. Dr. van Driest is head of the Space Sciences Laboratory at North American Aviation, Inc., a major contractor for the Apollo spacecraft. "The Assault on the Moon," Dr. van Driest's topic, will deal with efforts of the United States to land a man on the moon by 1970. The public is invited to the lecture which begins at 8:30 p.m.

Instructors' First Aid Course Set

Red Cross will conduct a first aid instructor training course, beginning Nov. 20, to prepare persons to teach the courses which are in constant demand throughout Torrance. Walter West, first aid chairman for the Torrance-Lomita Red Cross branch, says men and women who have taken the advanced first aid course within the last three years are eligible to take the instructor course. Hugh Gillis, assistant director of safety services for the Los Angeles Red Cross chapter, will conduct the free course for prospective instructors to be given on consecutive Wednesdays from 7 to 9 p.m. at the Gardena City Hall, 1700 W. 162nd St. Enrollment may be completed by calling 327-0220 or TE 2-8311. Attendance at each of the five sessions is required for certification. With an instructor's authorization, individuals may teach the standard and advanced Red Cross first aid courses.

Mathematics Teachers to Attend Meet

Two West High School mathematics teachers have been selected to attend the fourth annual conference of the California Mathematics Council at Santa Monica Nov. 22 and 23. Miss Marjorie Kelly and Forrest White will represent the Warrior faculty at the annual meeting. The theme for this year's conference is "Developing Continuity in Mathematics Education." The delegates will hear leaders in the field mathematics, visit demonstration classes, examine the latest teaching materials, and see demonstrations of new techniques.

Dr. Rita Rogers To Speak Friday At Local School

Dr. Rita Rogers, head of the Children's Psychiatric Outpatient Department at Harbor General Hospital, will speak to parents and friends of Scherich's South Bay School, 1108 Tulita Ave., Friday at 8 p.m. Dr. Rogers will speak on "Children With Learning Problems." A question and answer period will follow the lecture. Dr. Rogers is a member of the faculty at the UCLA Medical Center. Because of limited space, advance reservations will be required. They may be made by calling Warren Scherich, FR 5-0469 or Mrs. Gerald Ramsey, 375-2636.

Officers of School Red Cross Named

Shelby Peterson, a West High School student, has been elected one of the corresponding secretaries of the Harbor Bay-West Bay Council of High School Red Cross. Also elected was Diane Perry, a Venice High senior. The two were elected to office at a meeting attended by more than 70 high school students. The council is composed of delegates from 20 high schools and directs Red Cross activities in these schools. Other officers are Bob Holmes, Westchester High, and Clyde Dohoney, San Pedro High, co-chairmen; and Jan Newell, Aviation High, recording secretary.
